Sub.: Nomination of young officers who have made significant contributions towards the implementation of poverty alleviation initiatives-reg.

In reference to above mentioned subject, it is requested to send at least five nominations of officers from your circles who have made significant contributions towards the implementation of key poverty alleviation and welfare initiatives.

The nominations may preferably comprise young officers who have actively contributed to the implementation, monitoring, coordination or effective delivery of poverty alleviation initiatives. Along with the nominations, a brief write-up of approximately 100 words for each nominated officer, highlighting their specific contributions, role and achievements in the implementation of such initiatives, may also be furnished.

The report containing the requisite information may be sent to this office by 21.11.2026, on the following emails for further disposal to DoT:

Email:agmadmn1@gmail.com & sandy12bsnl@gmail.com

This has the approval of the competent authority.
